Dear Members of the Selection Committee,

To successfully deliver the Southworth Terminal Building and Trestle Replacement project, we have assembled a team that understands the importance and scale of this project, both from a functional perspective and because it will demonstrate WSF’s ability to provide a cost effective facility that meets the changing needs of ferry riders. From our Project Manager to our drafters and administrators, our team is committed to WSF’s success.

The KPFF team has the technical expertise to create a efficient design, the project management capacity to produce a fully integrated design package, and an understanding of the WSF and Kitsap Transit operational requirements of the project. Between our recent design work on the Mukilteo, Vashon Island, and Kingston terminals and our planning work for Kitsap Transit’s fast ferry service, we know what it takes to build resilient marine structures and provide transit facilities that effectively serve a wide variety of modes of transportation, including both passenger-vehicle ferries, fast passenger-only ferries, transit buses, cars, ride-share vehicles, and bicycles.

Our team is structured to simplify collaboration with the WSF Project Manager and other members of the WSF team. We have worked with WSF for over 50 years and understand the project management, project controls, design review and risk management systems that are needed to reduce construction risk and keep the project on schedule and within budget. As this is a GEC contract, we will have a dedicated project management and controls team to track the key project metrics and milestones, identify issues as early as possible, and facilitate the development of technical solutions.

Key members of the KPFF team include:

- » Project Manager: Ed DeBroeck, PE, DBIA
- » Principal-in-Charge: Andrew Bennett, PE
- » Trestle Design Manager: Andrew Gastineau, PE, PhD
- » Building Design Manager: Todd Maki, PE
- » Project Controls Manager: Kristen Kissinger, AICP

Our Trestle Design Team and Terminal Design Team are both filled with senior KPFF staff and subconsultants with whom we have had long-term successful relationships. This combination of internal expertise and an extensive history of collaboration will allow us to get going quickly and facilitate the creative problem solving that is key to developing constructable, effective designs.

The Project Controls Team includes specialist subconsultants which gives our team both in-depth understanding of the cost, schedule, and budget risks of a large infrastructure project and experts with enough independence to provide objective input and advice.

The KPFF team includes several small business DBE firms with whom we have a long history of successful collaboration. Collectively, our team provides the technical expertise and experience that WSF will require to achieve the goals of this important project. Our team is committed to providing you with responsive and quality service throughout the life of this contract. We look forward to the opportunity to discuss this project with you in further detail. Please contact us directly at the numbers or emails below if you have questions or need additional information. Thank you for the opportunity to submit our qualifications for this project.

Sincerely,

Andrew Bennett, PE
